

New album from Swedish super trio MUSICMUSICMUSIC. “Buen Sabor”

Göteborg, November 2013

In their native Sweden MUSICMUSICMUSIC has been labelled one of the most vitalizing music experiences to hit the jazz scene. With a passion for experimentation and an ever present joy in playing, the group skillfully takes on classical jazz compositions as well as original work by the group's pianist Fabian Kallerdahl, who has been rewarded with numerous awards and grants and has been pointed out as one of the most interesting pianists in Sweden. Bassist Josef Kallerdahl and drummer Michael Edlund are also some of the most sought after jazz artists on the Swedish scene. The group has become widely acclaimed for their refreshing lack of respect, humouristic features and intimate live performances and has reached out to audiences far beyond the traditional borders of jazz music.

MMM are now celebrating 10 years as groundbreaking ambassadors for Swedish contemporary jazz. New York, Johannesburg, Bangkok, Tokyo, Edinburgh, Brussels, London, Paris, Tbilisi, Mexico City and Berlin are some of the places where MMM have played. On all these journeys MMM have encountered people and atmospheres which have made an impact on their music.

The inspiration to the new and 7th album “Buen Sabor” is taken from these musical adventures and in many ways this album is a big thank you to everybody all over the world who in one way or another have made an impact on MMM's music and also a promise to keep up the good work for another 10 years, at least.

“Buen Sabor” also manifests MMM's lack of respect for rules and boundaries in music. Hundreds of concerts throughout the world have given MMM their typical sound. A sound that never ceases to re-invent itself. It can be hip and groovy as well as minimalistic and meditative. Enjoy!
