

SWEDEN'S BIGGEST JAZZ TRIO (7 people)

Swedish jazz phenomenon MUSICMUSICMUSIC's new album OVERSIZED in stores March 20.

An enlarged trio, dressed to the teeth and put in a gold frame. Brothers Fabian and Josef Kallerdahl and drummer Michael Edlund have played together since the beginning of the century. Over the years they have been called "the garage band of Swedish jazz", "a small package of rhythmic excellence", "a trio with a refreshing lack of respect for their genre" and simply "super trio". Now, on their ninth album it's still a trio we are hearing, but this time in the enhanced luxury version with arrangements for viola da gamba, violin, bass clarinet and flute.

Oversized. The new record contains a suite of four longer pieces, newly written music by Fabian Kallerdahl. The themes and aideas have been experimented and played around with during a two-year period with the trio, both at concerts at home in Sweden and on tours around the world. When it was time to record the music with full band, MMM took the opportunity to give a few old hits from the repertoire new clothes in this luxurious setting. The result is an LP in which MMM's classic dense and seamless groove is intact and where the woodwinds and strings have become an integrated part of the trio, rather than overdubs.

On the album, the bass clarinet and flute is played by Nils Berg and the viola da gamban and violin by Samuel Runsteen.

Oversized will be released on LP, CD and digitally worldwide on March 20th. On April 15.
